SUBJECT: Review and Advisement: LCTCS Policy #6.032, Policy on Search Committees in Hiring
DATE: April 3, 2017

FOR REVIEW AND ADVISEMENT

Recommendation: Staff recommends that the Board accept for review and advisement the revisions to the attached policy #6.032, "Policy on Search Committees in Hiring".

Background: This policy sets minimum guidelines for all LCTCS institutions to follow in the search and hiring process. These requirements include a search committee for all chancellor, administrative positions at director and above, and full time faculty. A search committee is encouraged for other positons. The policy sets minimum time periods for posting vacant positions.

Revisions to the policy are proposed to clarify and strengthen certain provisions, to recognize changes in technology and the way applicants now look for employment, and to encourage diversity in our applicant pool. The use of emergency or interim appointments is clarified and an exception clause added to the policy. Chancellor and Director positions would be posted for a minimum of ten calendar days instead of ten business days; all other vacancies would be posted for seven calendar days instead of ten business days. These changes are in line with current business practices and the use of primarily online postings.

Fiscal Impact: N/A.

History of Prior Actions: This policy was last revised in February 2005.

Benefits to System: The proposed changes will allow a vacancy to be posted and filled more quickly and consistent with current business practices.
